

BEST MOTHER'S DAY GIFTS—FIRST-BORN BABIES

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Rev. Charles Diener Dies' St. Clare's Pastor Was 83

The Rev. Charles M. Diener, 2356 East Hill Ave., O'Bryonville, after a long illness, died yesterday in St. Clare's hospital.

She was the daughter of the Rev. Alexander B. Riggs, pastor of Seventh Presbyterian

The world's best Mother's Day present, a new baby, is illustrated happily as can be in these photographs of five new Cincinnati mothers with their first-born children. The newcomers, totally unconcerned about their timely arrivals, were born last week in Good Samaritan and Jewish Hospitals. Pictured above, at Good Samaritan (1) Mrs. Frank L. Roth and son, Steven, 4426 Sullivan Ave., St. Bernard; (2) Mrs. John R. Moore and daughter, Victoria Marie, 7604 Elizabeth St., Mt. Healthy; (3) Mrs. John Swan and daughter, Christine Louise, 3335 Muddy Creek Rd., Westwood, and (5) Mrs. Frank Jett and son, Paul, 451 Ludlow Ave., Clifton.

No Excitement Breaking Sound Barrier, Woman Declares After Ride In Jet Plane

By Margaret Josten
Enquirer Staff Writer
WRIGHT-PATTERSON AIR FORCE BASE, May 12—Del-Vina Wheelon, henceforth to be known as "Tiger," stepped from a Starfire fighter jet here when 1st Lt. Robert E. Kline, a jaunty Pennsylvanian, helped her into his silver-colored F-94-C Starfire.

He said "C'mon, Chickadee, let's make history."
After much adjustment of headgear, controls and other

Ground personnel knew the big moment had been reached when Lieutenant Kline said the words, "mach one," which, in international scientific parlance means speed of sound.
Such speed, a bystander ex-