Ohio State Fair Winner

THE 111-PIECE MARCHING BAND from Cincinnati's Roger Bacon High School took first place in the first Ohio State Marching Band Contest Thursday at the Ohio State Fair in Columbus. The band, directed by Wes Neal, received a $1500 cash prize, two band instruments and the opportunity to play at two professional football league halftimes at Cleveland and Cincinnati. Father Celsus Griesse, band moderator and members of the organization gather around the huge trophy.
