

Suspensions Lifted By Bacon Officials On Four Gridders

Four Roger Bacon High School football players who drew indefinite suspensions from scholastic athletic competition for staging a "sympathy strike" when Bernard Roeckers was dismissed from the squad October 8, were reinstated yesterday, Rev. Jordan Telles, O.F.M., athletic director, announced.

The four who returned to the football squad after each individual case was thoroughly investigated were Louis Dinkelacker, end; Thomas Sicking, tackle; Raymond Folz, halfback, and William Rethman, end.

The athletic department's statement follows:

"The suspension of four football players has been lifted. This action followed an investigation into the merits of each case and a fulfillment of all requirements by the suspended players. It covers only the four who were temporarily suspended."
